

YOUTH PEACE LEADERS TRAINING 2024

At the Betania House of Finca San José located in the Chia Municipality, and in the city of Bogota, Colombia, the students belonging to the 1st Cohort of Young Peace Leaders 2024 completed the in-person session of the Program and completed one hundred hours of training in the curriculum.

Young people receiving their Certificate and Peace Ambassador's URI Credential

They received a Certificate from the Luis Dolan Chair of interreligious and intercultural studies for Peace of the Central University of Venezuela, with the endorsement of the Faculty of Economic and Social Sciences and the signature of the Dean and by URI, those of Sarah Oliver, Reuben Shank and Enoé Texier as Chair Coordinator.

Our young people said goodbye happy and committed to their own Cooperation Circles to continue and reinforce the service they have been performing in their communities.

At the Interreligious Forum convened by Rev. Luis Fernando San Miguel of the CC Teusaquillo Territorio de Paz, Colombia

Likewise, on a personal level they committed to act daily in accordance with the PPPs and values of the credential they received identifying them as URI LA&C Ambassadors for Peace.

The First Cohort of Young Peace Leaders was possible thanks to the important effort made by the Regional Office team, the seed financial contribution from URI Latin America and the Caribbean approved by the 2020-2024 Leadership Team, and the generous collaboration of donors external achieved by the Regional Coordination

In the 3rd session, a complement to the two online sessions of the "Earth Restoration" Module taught by Lauren Van Ham

Love and humility marked the joy and harmony of our Meeting.

